

STATE GENERAL PURPOSE RECIPIENT COMMITTEES

2005 Filing Schedule Q&A

Q: Must a committee file the statement due October 31 if the only contribution made between July 1 and September 30 is a contribution of $3,200 to a state senator to pay debt from her 2004 election?

A: No. The committee must make contributions totaling $10,000 or more to state officeholders to trigger this statement.

Q: Must a committee file the odd-year report if the committee's only contributions are to a political party committee?

A: No.

Q: Must a committee file the odd-year report if the committee has made contributions of $10,000 or more to a ballot measure committee controlled by an elected state officer?

A: Yes.

Q: Must a committee file the odd-year report if the committee made a contribution of $5,000 to one state officeholder and a contribution of $6,000 to another state officeholder?

A: Yes. The report is triggered if $10,000 or more is contributed during the applicable period. All contributions to state officeholders, their controlled committees, and to committees primarily formed to support or oppose elected state officeholders are counted toward the $10,000 threshold.
